Simple and Convenient.

Handy and Usefui.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY JULY 11, 1892

BROOKLYN EVENING WORLD---ONE CENT. EDITION OF THE # EXTRA

State Troops Preparing to Move Upon Homestead.

The Second Brigade Will Reach the Mills To-Night.

Leaders of the Workmen Urge Submission to the Soldiery.

Sheep Into the Works May Cause Trouble.

THE SITUATION IN BRIEF. Gov. Pattison has called out the entire State militia of Pennsylvania to suppress any further outbreaks of violence at Homestead, Pa., and the troops are now on their way to the scene of the trouble.

which includes the Fourteenth and Sighteenth Regiments of Infantry and Capt. Hunt's Battery, of Pittsburg, as well as a number of separate companies in Western Pennsylvania, will arrive at Homestead this evening.

Grave tears are expressed that the Pittsburg regiments will recuse to fire upon the of the State of Pennsylvania." said one of locked-out workmen at the Carnegie mills the leaders at 9 o'clock this morning. "We should there be another riotous outbreak shall not oppose the militia. But no power upon the arrival of the troops.

The Advisory Committee of the locked-out men at Homestead, of which Hugh O'Donnell the soldiers are withdrawn the men will fall is Chairman, has been revived, and the coming of the National guardsmen is awaited here to usurp their places in the mills, and with feverish anxiety. O'Donnell declares, the scene of last Wednesday morning will that the men will offer no resistance to the

The workmen themselves, however, say that if non-union men are sent to take their right of the thing. Don't preach to an empty places in the Carnegle works there will be more trauble, and the current opinion in stomach. Don't try to argue with a man in Homestead is that "black sheep" must be kept out at whatever hazard.

it is reported that some of the mill hands have discovered squads of Pinkerton men navies. Schepreservation steems are lettering in the vicinity of Homestead in the guise of workingmen. H. C. Frick, manager and when all is over and peace comes once guise of workingmen. H. C. Frick, manager more in the Monongaheia Valley it will not of the Carnegie Works, says that he does not come perched on the banner of the militia, intend to hire any more Plakertonians

James O'Day, one of the Pinkerton guards who was wounded in last Wednesday's battie, died last night at Chesterton, Ind.

SAY THEY WILL NOT RESIST.

Homestend Leaders Promise Submission to the Soldiery.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 11. - As soon as word reached here that Gov. Pattison had ordered out the entire State militia a hurry call was sent for a meeting of the members of the disbanded Advisory Committee. It was then and of the nature of the deliberations but that they would be blown to the sky before who were thus to be overawed. little is known beyond the fact that the Com- they should be occupied by others than the There were other people, and hundreds of the uprising of thousands upon thousands of meeting had adjourned that the Committee and very mysterious rumors that high explo- that seemed about to force the workingmen is horrible to think of. had decided not to offer any resistance to the sives were being placed under the tracks of Homestead into, as they called it, a condioccupation of the town or of the Carnegle and bridges over which the militia must tion of seridom. works by the militia.

Chairman Hugh O'Donnell, of the Comnittee, was impatient when asked if resistshoe would be offered to the soldiery. Scowl-

Resist the State authority? We are not parcel of fools. I tell you, sir, we shall give the militia all the support they need. We shall continue our guard watch of the property till the militia arrive. But the Burgess John McLuckie, of Homestead, who is himself one of the mill men and a member of the Advisory Committee of Fifty, resistance. I know the men, and they have the dignity and honor of the State as much at heart as any other citizen. They have conducted themselves in this trouble, since they were locked out of the shops, with intelligence. There has been no disorder here, no brawls, save the one that was brought on by the appearance here of a band of cutthroats armed to the teeth."

"Shall we do nothing if the State sends have families looking to us for bread. It will they are the objects of constant surveillance. It will they are the objects of constant surveillance. our wives and children."

It is a question if the Advisory Committee men. State troops.

of the workmen are overwhelmed with gloom | was adorned with a " press" badge.

and schools and parks, would releut and were not ordered to leave town, and these listen to their plea for the retention of the men are the objects of deepest suspicion. wages they had been receiving for the work that made him one of the wealthiest men in the news from Harrisburg last night there ally more good cheer among them than at were some hot-headed ones who talked of any time since the present trouble tegan. dynamite and murder, but to-day there is a They say, individually and in groups, and quieter and sadder trend of thought. Most say it heartly, that they will do all in their of the men say that they will submit to the power to aid the militia in restoring order in authority of the State and will offer no oppo- the community. sition to Gen. Snowden and histroops, but At 10.30 o'clock word was received from

"We must bow our heads to the majest can restrain these men from fighting for their bread, and I fear that just so soon as pale into insignificance in the light of the war that will ensue.

" No matter about the legal or the moral op; esition to the hollow eyes of his wife and the plaintive wail of his starving chill.

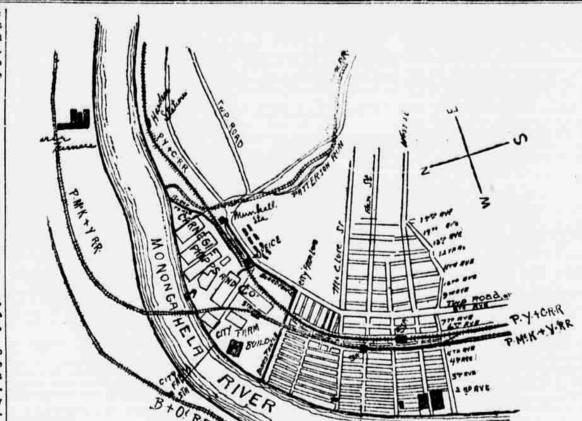

"Let us talk sense. These men are not lawiess. Self-preservation is the first law or nor will it clisten in the steel of Pinkerton Winchesters.

"Our men have been locked out by the Carnegle Company, and if they refuse to starve or to let their families starve the Great Arbitrator of all will not condemn them, if human laws and social institutions do."

The men stand about the streets in groups. They have gotten over the first excitement, and they are now simply waiting with drouped heads for the coming of the militia and the following black sheep.

DISCREDITED BUMORS THAT DYNAMITE IS TO

inhabitants of Homestead, but these reports them, on the street who roundly cursed the enraged and outraged workingmen of Alle-It was given out unometally after the found no more credence than the extravagant Governor, and declared defiance to the law given young, with a result in the end that poss and that the avenging wrath of anarchy

MAP SHOWING CANNEGUE, PULIPES & CO. PLANT AT HOMESTEAD AND ROUTES BY WHICH IT MAY BE REACHED. A.-SCHNE OF PIRST RATTLE

among the workmen before the arrival of the every reporter to visit the headquarters of militia. the Amalgamated Association, where, after a There is a sad look on the face of nearly searching examination by a Committee apevery man in Homestead this morning. Most pointed for the purpose, if he "passed," be Attempts to Inject Black They had hoped against hope that Mr. makes the wearer conspicuous at a distance. night by the Sheriff: Carnegie, so open handed in gifts of libraries Some men were not given the badge, yet they GOV. PATTIAGN TO BE NEAR AT HAND.

11.30 a. M .- The men throng the streets at That hope is gone. At the first receipt of movements or the soldiers, but there is actuthey most solemnly declare that if Mr. Frick Pittsburg that Gov. Pattison would arrive in persists in carrying out the plan he has that city this evening so as to be close to the

THE DEMAND FOR MILITIA. State Troops Ordered Out on a Call from Sheriff McCleary.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] PITTEBURG, Pa., July 11 .-- The excitement here over the situation at Homestead reached maintain order there.

and treble in number during the first hours In front of the local newspaper offices. Men disorderly element will be overswed and or be restored. I, therefore, call upon you to seemed to rise up out of the ground to swell me such assistance. the throngs on the streets. People who had retired to their beds in the early Sunday evening, hearing the shouts on the streets, order:

This action of Gov. Pattison had been anticipated, but it was hardly expected so Alleghene County at Homestead. Maintain the soon. Among sober, thinking people who peace. Protect all persons in their rights under the constitution and laws of the State. are in deepest sympathy with the workmen, cate with me. ROBERT E. PAT 180M. there was a distinct feeling of relief.

Bo long as the strained situation at the was sent: the men themselves entrenched in the communication with him. Communicate with me little borough and rulling it under arbitrary law of such a character as to place an em-men here with guns to shoot us down like one hundred of them, halling from all parts throw their muskets in the sewers and refuse protect a lot of 'black sheep' and to oppose treated with the greatest civility by the At 2 o'clock this morning messengers were us, why let 'em look out. We are men. We leaders are not at all liked by the men, and ringing doorbells all over Pittsburg and de-drawn shutters, was reported as having require a strong arm to keep us off the men Occasionally a reporter is ordered to pack up manded the recipient to appear forthwith at miles back of Homestead in the dead of nightwho try to take the bread from the mouths of and leave the place because of some real or his armory, equipped with knapsack and The mill hands' secuts found the names of fancied injury which his paper has done the marching uniform, and from that hour till hundreds of strangers on the registers of the The Well-Krown Soubrette Passed morning the city streets were trodden by hotels of Pittsburg and Allegheny City, and can wholly overcome the belligerent feeling Yesterday a new order was issued, obliging sleepy men in the blue of the Fennsylvania in their heated imagination the workmen,

NATIONAL GUARDSMEN DISSATISFIED.

THE DEMAND FOR MILITIA AND ITS RESULT. The correspondence in the matter was posted at Sheriff McCleary's office to-day and was read by thousands. It togins with the The badge is a broad white ribbon, and it following despatch sent to the Governor last orinions divided as to wearers there

Robert E. Putthen, Guternor, Harrisburg, Pa.
The situation at Homestead has n t improved, while all is quiet. The strikers are in control and openly express to me and to the public their detern that the works shall not be operated un-

After making all efforts in my power I have failed fever heat at midnight, when the news that to secure a posse respectable sounds in number to cov. Pattison had invoked the aid of the entire army of the State of Pennsylvania to peace taked by the civil authorities can do any the same of the State of Pennsylvania to thing to change the condition of affairs, and that naintain order there.

The people of Pittsburg seemed to double the same of the milmen. They are not all of thing to change the condition of affairs, and that them entirely paid for. The men, shut out of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the mentirely paid for. The men, shut out of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the mentirely paid for. The men, shut out of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the mentirely paid for. The men, shut out of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milmen. They are not all of apportionment of the Committee on the respect to the milment of the committee of the milment of th after the Harrisburg despatch was bulletined trol matters. I believe if such force is sent the face.

Hannishung, July 10, 1892.

with ammunition to the support of the Sheriff of

To Sheriff McCleary the following telegram for further particulars.

ROBT. E. PATTIBON, GOVERNOR. THE AIR FULL OF RUMORS.

bargo upon trade and stagnate the town. The air was charged with rumors about the there was constant apprehension of another stealthy movements of Pinkerton men who bloody collision. The calling out of the en- were gathering all about this locality in little tire force of the State militia was, by these knots and groups or singly, to ultimately cou-Early in the day there was a recurrence of sober-minded people conceded to be a step in centrate into one great army and swoop down those rumors that dynamite had been the interest of peace, but there were many upon Homestead with vengeance for their The meeting was held behind closed doors, planted under the Carnegie mills, and expressions of sympathy for the workmen battle cry. The appearance of such an army of "Hessians" would have been the signal for > discovery of such groups. One group of twenty-nine was found under the hill back of would descend upon this capitalistic army | National guardsmen, members of the two | Homestead with picks and shovels. They said before it could invade the city of Homestead. regiments stationed here and of the battery | they were digging in search of a leak in a MEWSPAPER MEN REGARDED WITH SUSPICION. | of artillery, were in the throngs, and many of natural gas main, but nearly all of them The newspaper men, and there are at least them were heard to declare that they would were smoking cigars or pipes, and your Penn-

who understand their own town, and be lieve themselves to be besieged, conjured up a desperate legion of Pinkertons who were

WILL BE FIGHTING. itacif over to the discustion of the situation. establish a permanent garrison at the Carnegie works or else the non-union men who are to take the places of the old hands would fare ill indeed at the nands of the locked-out men lust an scon at the stone arm of the military just as soon as the strong arm of the military protection was relaxed.

FRICK SAID TO HAVE ENGAGED 5,000 NON UNION MEN.

II. C. Frick, of the Carnegle Company, has been reticent regarding the ultimate plans of the Cumpany, but it has been stated on reliable authority that Mr. Frick has engaged and now budds in readiness 5,000 workmen who will come to liouratead just as soon as they receive orders to do so.

As has been stated before, Homestead consists simply and solely of the Carnegle works and the 4,800 men who have been employed there, with their families, and a few, a very leader of the skrikers.

REAPORTIONMENT PLANS.

REAPORTIONMENT PLANS.

REAPORTIONMENT PLANS.

Tammany's Committee to Perfect as justing, and I am satisfied that no days the following will in further armade stratements of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days mail community. The nouses on the Billisdes are the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining, and I am satisfied that no days the silical post of the mining and the prevalence of the Amarchists for the post of the mining and the prevalence of the Amarchists for the post of the mining and the prevalence of the Amarchists for the post of the mining and the prevalence of the Amarchists for the post of the satisfied that the sole near the post of the mining and the prevalence of the Amarchists for the post of the mining and the prevalence of the Amarchists for t Only a large military force will enable me to con. the employers, have ruin staring them in the arose, dressed and came out to share in the Genral R. Sanwdan, Major-General commanding ably be governed by common prudence and Aug. 1. A feature will be the three-mile race excitement.

Will not fight the military power of the State, Post-Office Departments of this city and at Suizer's Harlem River Park on Monday be governed by common prudence and will not fight the military power of the state, it may be safely predicted that the day that sees the retreat of the military power of the state, stead will mark the beginning of an anti-non union war there.

WEIRE HOTE FOR FEACE.

President William Welle, of the Amalgamated Association, lives on South Seven, teach street, Pittsburg. A representative of The Eventure World in anti-non of The Eventure World him there early this morning. His eyes fairly bulged while the caller read to him the military orders for the local command, but he was not communicative.

"What can I say I" he blurted out. "If the Governor were injured last night and offer the local command, but he was not communicative."

"What can I say I" he blurted out. "If the Governor were injured last night as point as a spidle may a reaging by everturing of a raisassy table not as possible to the local command, but he was not communicative.

"What can I say I" he blurted out. "If the Governor were injured last night as point as point as a spidle of the local command, but he was not communicative."

"What can I say I" he blurted out. "If the Governor were injured last night as point as point of the local command, but he was not communicative."

"What can I say I" he blurted out. "If the Governor were injured last night as point as point of the communicative."

"What can I say I" he blurted out. "If the Governor were injured last night as point as p mills continued, with the millionaire owners was sent:

repeatedly and persistently counselled the men to peace and non-resistance, but no man can tell what will be the effect at Homestead when the soldiers march into the town.

" I trust that there will be no violence and no more trouble, but I would not venture my reputation as a prophet by predicting that." MASTER WORKWAN DEMPSEY EXPECTS TROUBLE District Master Workman Dempsey, of the Knights of Labor, was bitter in his denun-

A NIGHT OF TERROR. RAVACHOL BEHEADED. LAST EDITION

Four Supposed Incendiary Fires The Guillotine at Last Claims the in a Jersey. Village.

Thirty-One Horses Perished.

bridge Streets with Loaded Guns.

PRPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, RARWAY, N. J., July 11. - The village of Woodbridge, four miles south of this city, ing. He was awakened at 3.40 clock by was last night thrown into a state of great the jail officials at Montbrisson and informed excitement by the discovery of fire in the that the day of his execution had arrived. stable of the Salamanda Company's works opposite the depot seeded in confining the flames to the statle. Strong invective sgainst religion.

works, located about half a mile below Woodbridge. The bucket-handlers were again put by lines of troops, who kept the way clear for to work, and succeeded in saving the works.

Ten horses were burned in this fire.

by lines of troops, who kept the way clear for the condemned man and the executioner's party.

J. Phifer's barn, near the sand hill, was next found to be on fire, as is supposed, by the incendiaries' torch. Here nine horses the incendiaries' torch. Here nine horses fire, but his three horses were rescued. The excitement ran very high, and the Town shirt was opened at the neck, and turned do duty the remainder of the night. The specials were armed with guns.

Away in Providence Yesterday.

Word was received in this city this morning that Kate Castleton, the well-known soutrette and star of "The Dazzler" com-came to this country with an English bur-lesque troupe in the seventies. She soon be-

EXPECTING THE PRESIDENT.

the Nation's Chief Magistrate.

Gov. Pattison at once issued the following of hard work lost and destroyed while they Timothy D. Sullivan Association will be neid can strike a blow. Though they will prob- at Suizer's Harlem River Park on Monday,

OOOO A Place for everything. and everything in its place." Have you The World

Postal Card in its place? Postal Card in its place?

Enterprising advertisers have all found a place for them.

Two thousand French Finnes! Coats and Vestion match, 35a., reduced from $2.00, all colors are sizes $4.00 to $4.00 me; seeingan Suits, 180a. and $2.00 me; the said seed from $1.00 me; the said seed from $1.00 me; the said see and $2.00 me; them.

Two thousand French Finnes! Coats and $2.00 me; $2.0

Noted Paris Anarchist.

Each Blaze Was in a Stable and "Vive la Republique!" the Condemned Man's Final Cry.

Special Constables Patrolling Wood- Great Crowd at the Execution, but No Startling Incident.

> Panis, July 11 .- Ravachel, the Anarchist. murderer and thief, was executed this morn-ical indifference, and when the ministrations of the prison chaptain were offered to him he refused to accept them and broke out into

The approaches to the scaffold were guarded could be heard uttering blasphemous cries. The barn of Denald McVicar, a centractor, was seized by the assistants of M. Deibler, was about this same time discovered to be on the executioner. His clows were drawn the executioner. Once alongside the guillotine the prisoner down, and in a moment his unresisting form was pushed upon the frontie, the sliding plank that carries the body forward in a re-under the knife.

Just as he was slid forward Ravachol shouted: "I have something to say." Deibler | ger, and they expect to get him out of | bed |

Bayachol, from the time he was eight until came to this country leader troupe in the seventles. She soon became a popular favorite, and her seng, "For Goodness Sake, Don't Say I Told You," made her known from one end of the country to the other.

In 1876 she married Joe Elliott, a notorious English forger, who was afterwards sent to State pricon for forging a $04,000 drait.
Miss Casaleton was divorced from Elliott in to marry a respectable girl he wanted him to marry a respectable girl he struck her.

It is details, but it is known that he lived a life of crime, while all the time preaching to those who would listen to him the doctrines of Anarchism.

He became notorious in March last through listers as perpetrator of the dynamite outges which terrorized Paris in that month. These outgages were inspired by Anarchism Maindering clerk Buildwin, of the former of motives of revenge, and were directed chiefly against M. Benott and M. Bulot, magistrates concerned in the presecution of members of the fraternity.

Wards the patient began almost immediately to show signs of improvement.

At the offices of the estates of John Jacob Astor and William Astor, in West Seventy-sixth stret, this morning, it was stated by Managing clerk Buildwin, of the former of the first news of the liness of William Waildorf Asser was gained through the motives of revenge, and were directed chiefly against M. Benott and M. Bulot, magistrates of the sixth stret, this morning, it was stated by Managing clerk Buildwin, of the former of nece, that the first news of the liness of William Astor, in West Seventy-sixth stret, this morning, it was stated by Managing clerk Buildwin, of the former of nece, that the first news of the liness of William Waildorf Asser was gained through the sixth stret, this morning, it was stated by Managing clerk Buildwin, of the former of nece, that the first news of the liness of William Waildorf Asser was gained through the sixth stret, this morning, it was stated by Managing clerk Buildwin, of the former of nece, that the first news of the liness of William Astor, in West Seventy-sixth stret, this morning, it was stated by Managing clerk Buildwin, of the former of nece, that the first news of the liness of William Waildorf Asser was gained through the sixth stretch in the property of the same of the property imprisonment.

However, the law had other holds on this fellow. He was accused of various murders, he himself described how he chosed to death.

Music in the Parks. Conterno's Ninth Regiment band will give a concert this afternoon in Washington Square Park.

To-night the band will play in Paradise Park. An entertaining programme has been arranged for each concert.

PRICE ONE CENT.

W. W. ASTOR BETTER,

He Is Recovering from His Attack of Pneumonia

Princess of Wales's Physician Thinks He Is Out of Danger.

Erroneous Report of His Death Caused by a Fainting Spell.

ISPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD.] LONDON, July 11.-It was announced this morning that William Waldorf Astor was Twenty draught horses were quartered in the stables, tweive of which were burned.

About the same time fire was discovered in the stable of the Staten Island terra cotta resting quite comfortably at his residence, Lansdown House, Berkeley square, and the

Mr. Astor, his physicians say, is out of dan-shouted: "I have something to say." Beiber ger, and they expect to get him out of bed in paid no attention whatever to this, but preceded to let the knire drop.

Just as the liency clade scarted on its fatal journey Rayacuch shouter, whe is Republiqued and a second later his severed head was 17 in the basket placed in front of the guillotine to receive it.

The crowd then slowly dispersed. There was no single incident worthy or note. There is a general feeling of relief that Rayachol has at last had justice meted out to him.

drenchid. A cold he then contracted de-Havachol, from the time be was eight until he was thirteen years old, tended sneep at Lavilat. Then he was apprenticed to adjective supported his mother and younger brother, was very kind to them and was extremely religious. He had to amuse children, and remanstrated against the ill-treatment of animals.

At twenty-three, however, he was won over by the Anarchists, began proselytiday in the veloped into pneumonia, and Dr. McLa;an, physician to the Princess of Wales, has been in constant attendance upon him ever since Last evening about 7 o'clock Mr. Astor be state for so long a period that it was thought he had passed away. It was this lapsing into unconsciousness that gave rise to the rumos which filled London that the young multiintilionaire had died. at Mr. Astor's house that the period of coms wards the patient began almost immediately who were making an excursion on the rive

15c. TO $2.50

World Postal Cards. Pur chase one to suit the price of your advertisement and mail it. The World wildo the rest.

Are the range of prices for